

“The Enchantress”

2007 Yakima Valley

100% Chardonnay

The 2007 “Enchantress” Chardonnay is an absolute stunner, much like the beauty on the label! The grapes are from the Raj Majal Vineyard, in the southeast tip of the Yakima Valley. Cropped at one ton per acre, we got enough juice to make two barrels of this wine. It was aged in one year old French oak barrels for 18 months on the original lees the entire time. It was hand bottled in March of 2009, unfiltered and unfiltered. Naturally high acids help balance the weight and texture of the wine, which is full of fresh tree fruit (think green apples), cinnamon spice, minerals, and just the slightest hint of sweet oak. It should develop well over the next decade. Only 41 cases were produced so don’t miss your chance to be enchanted...
